November 2020

Dear Parents/Carers,

I am sure that by now you are all aware that England will be entering another national lockdown from Thursday 5th November 2020. However, the Prime minister has reiterated his commitment to keep educational establishments open.

In response to this action, The Priory Learning Trust and its secondary academies, PCSA, TKASA and WCSA have decided to update our risk assessment in terms of the use of face coverings when in school.

Therefore, from Monday 9th November, we will require all students to come to school with a face covering. Whilst this will not be compulsory until Monday, we would encourage our students to come to school equipped with a face covering from Thursday November 5th.

When will my child need to wear a face covering?

- Entering and exiting the school premises at the start and end of the day.
- When moving to different classrooms within their year group bubble or inside school corridors.
- When queuing for food in the restaurant.

Face coverings are not required for the following:

- When in lessons, including tutor time.
- When eating, including inside the restaurant.
- When outdoors during social times.

If you think that your child should be exempt from wearing a face covering due to medical reasons, please send them in with a note explaining this or contact the school to let us know.

After the end of the national lockdown, we will update our risk assessment appropriately.

As always, thanks for your support during these challenging times for all.

Yours faithfully

Nathan Jenkins
